

CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2013-2014

October 5, 2013	Westwood Day - Find us for fun and engaging family activities!
October 2, 9 & 16, 2013	The Swing Era - A three-part presentation, given by Richard Travers . Mr. Travers, is a passionate speaker who enjoys sharing his love and knowledge of music with his audience. These presentations will be held at the Senior Center at 10:00 a.m.
November 1, 2013	Fall Grant Applications Due
November 5, 2013	The First Thanksgiving Historian Dr. Gary Hylander , will speak about what is actually known about the first Thanksgiving feast. This lecture will be held at the Senior Center, at 10:00 a.m.
November 12, 2013	CrazyBusy! A presentation by NY Times best-selling author and renowned adult and child psychiatrist Edward Hallowell, M.D., Ed.D. (honorary). Come hear Dr. Hallowell's insights on how to operate successfully (and sanely!) in a society where the pace is fast and getting faster. 7:00PM at the Westwood Public Library main branch. Doors open at 6:45PM. Click here to reserve your complimentary spot now!
December 2013	Annual Appeal - Please watch for our mailing – your donation makes grants for outstanding educational programs possible!
December 3, 2013	A Christmas Carol - Historian Dr. Gary Hylander will delve into the artistry of Dickens' "A Christmas Carol." This lecture will be held at the Senior Center, at 10:00 a.m.
January 10, 2014	Spelling Bee – The 18th Annual Elementary School Spelling Bee (registration will open in early November, 2013) WW High School
February 1, 2014	Winter Grant Applications Due
March 2014	Entertaining for Education – An E4E home party is a fun way to aid a good cause and celebrate the good we can all do by supporting education together!
April 1, 2014	Spring Grant Applications Due

For questions or more information on events, please email:
events@foundationforwestwoodeducation.org

www.foundationforwestwoodeducation.org